Press Release

For Immediate

Release.....September 15, 2009

Sapienza Gardens Happenings

The spring daffodils have faded into yesterday, but Sapienza Gardens is moving forward at record speed. A brick fund-raising campaign is now underway allowing everyone to become a permanent part of the garden. The bricks will be a part of the Children's Garden and can hold up to three lines of text. Forms are available at the River Vale and Hillsdale Borough Halls and Libraries and the bricks cost $50 each.

Also on the horizon are two events: A Fall Clean-Up day has been scheduled for Sunday, September 20th. Volunteers interested are invited to come to the gardens, which is located at the end of St. Nicholas Road behind Pascack Valley High School at 9 AM. Parking at PVHS is recommended.

On Saturday, September 26th, Sapienza Garden Trustees will hold their first fund-raising event, Wine in the Woods, from 5 – 8 pm. The night will feature wine, light fare, raffles and the enchanting music of Harpist Jose Luis Rodriguez. Backstage Weekly described Jose Luis Rodriguez as a harpist who projects "sheer beauty with his fantasy arrangements on the harp which are in a league of their own." Tickets are $25 in advance and $35 the night of the event. This event is open to anyone over the age of 21. A rain date of October 3rd has been set in case of inclement weather.
