Gold rush

The Trustees of the Sapienza Gardens hosted a 'Klondike Gold Rush' at the gardens on Sunday, April 18, for Hillsdale and River Vale families. Close to 100 area children searched for 'gold,' which was hidden throughout nearly three-acre park. Pictured above, Emily Pia, left, and Alexa Shachar show off the gold they found, which they would later exchange for gold chocolate coins.

The Trustees of the Sapienza Gardens hosted a 'Klondike Gold Rush' at the gardens on Sunday, April 18, for Hillsdale and River Vale families. Children searched for 'gold,' which was hidden throughout nearly three-acre park, and then exchanged the gold for gold chocolate coins. The trustees are planning to create a Reading Garden and Children's Learning Garden at the Gardens, which are located beyond the eastern terminus of St. Nicholas Avenue in Hillsdale.

Emma Petkowich is excited about how much 'gold' she found in Sapienza Gardens, which she later exchanged for gold chocolate coins.
